

This is a solo recording of the play, meaning that all parts including stage directions are performed by one person. LibriVox has three excellent dramatic recordings with all the parts played by different people so if that is more to your taste, please listen to them. Little needs to be said about the play itself, a sparkling example of Wilde's amazing ability to poke fun at almost everyone while making you laugh out loud at the witty sayings sprinkled throughout the acts. As to the plot, if you don't know it already, let me just say that it involves two young English men who fall madly and instantly in love with two young English women who of course love them back mainly because their name is Earnest. Unfortunately, that is not their names and there are many bumps and crashes on the road to the happy wedding bells. I only hope I have done justice to this jewel of a play. Please listen and enjoy !

Read by: Phil Chenevert

Running Time: 1:17:05

Book Coordinator: Phil Chenevert

Meta Coordinator: Phil Chenevert

Proof Listener: Eden Rea-Hedrick

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org. Cover picture from Wikimedia Commons. Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by francesb. This design is in the public domain.